THE N°. 341.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

WEDNESDAY, November 6, 1751.

PARIS, July 16.

A Report is juſt ſpread, that one of our India Company's Ships is arrived at Port L'Orient, and has brought Advice, that the Indians on the Coaſt of Coromandel having rejected the Terms of Peace that had been offered them, the French at Pondicherry had renewed Hoſtilities againſt them, and defeated them in divers Rencounters, &c. a Confirmation of which is daily expected.

Leghorn, July 8. The Corſican Malecontents, perceiving that the French Troops were making Preparations to quit their Iſland, have had ſeveral private Conferences, in which they framed a pathetic Manifeſto, ſetting forth the Motives of their Conduct, and that they are determined to eſtabliſh a free Government, conſiſting of a Senate and two Conſuls, who are alſo to act as Generals of their Forces; theſe are Signior Caſſorio, and Signior Ornano; which looks as if the Troubles in that Iſland would not be very quickly over.

Paris, July 17. M. Guymont, who was ſome Time Miniſter Plenipotentiary at Genoa, is ſet out for divers Courts of Germany, in order to execute private Commiſſions from his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, relative to the Election of a King of the Romans, which they expect will ere long be taken in Hand ſeriouſly. A great Council has been lately held at Compiegne, on Matters of great Importance, at which the Dauphin was preſent, ſince which the Inſpectors of the Army have received Orders to make Draughts from the Militia, to complete the Regiments of Infantry.

Madrid, July 6. They write from Cadiz, that three Engliſh Ships have been hired there, by Order of the Court, to tranſport Troops and Ammunition to America. The laſt Letters from Peru adviſe, that their Tranquility is not only perfectly reſtored, but that the late Conſpiracy has been in ſome Meaſure of Service, the Court having been by that Means enabled to break certain deſtructive Schemes, which were about to be put in Execution. Engineers will ſoon be ſent to repair the fortified Places upon the Sea Coaſts of that Kingdom; and there is a Talk of building at the ſame Time a Fortreſs in the Iſland of Juan Fernandez.

Peterſburg, July 9. The Empreſs has ſent freſh Orders to her new Miniſter at the Ottoman Porte, to make Complaint to the Grand Vizir of the Irruptions lately made by the Crim Tartars on the Frontiers of the Ukraine.

Venice, July 17. The laſt Letters from Conſtantinople mention a bloody Battle ſaid to have happen'd in the Neighbourhood of Iſaphan, between two of the principal Competitors for the Throne of Perſia, and in which above 30000 Men were kill'd upon the Spot: We don't yet know the exact Particulars of this Affair; theſe Letters only adviſe, that it is the Schach which moſt of the Perſians had acknowleged as Sophi, who gain'd the Victory. It is looked upon as a complete one, and the other Schach was wounded in the Engagement, tho' he had the good Fortune to eſcape with the ſmall Remains of his Army.

Amſterdam, July 30. The laſt Ships arrived from the Eaſt-Indies, bring very remarkable News concerning the Situation of Affairs between the French and Indians: Among other Things, we hear, that on the 3d of January laſt, the French had concluded a Peace with the Nation diſtinguiſh'd by the Name of Marattes: That the Nabob, with whom they were at War, had been killed by one of his Nephews, who was afterwards proclaimed in his Stead: That the latter, to denote his Gratitude to the French from whom he had received many Services, had brought over to their Intereſt the Nations bordering on Pondicherry, and the Coaſt of Coromandel, amounting together to upwards of thirty thouſand Men: That the new Nabob had declared Mr. Dupleix, who commands at Pondicherry, Generaliſſimo in thoſe Quarters, and got him acknowleged in that Quality by the Indian Nations: That the other Nabobs by whom they are commanded, and of whom the abovementioned is the Chief, had taken the Oaths to Mr. Dupleix: And that the principal Nabob had not confined his Acknowlegements to the Favours already related, but had conferred on Mr. Dupleix the Government of two Places, where the French privately enjoy the Privilege and Advantage of loading and unloading their Merchandize, &c.

Madrid, Auguſt 3. We learn from Cadiz, that four Ships, freighted by the Court, and on board of which ſome Troops were embark'd, were ſail'd from that Port for America, under Convoy of two Men of War.

Baſtia, Auguſt 3. The Deputies of the ſeveral Communities of this Iſland having aſſembled themſelves at San Fiorenzo, purſuant to Letters of Convocation ſent them for that Purpoſe, the Chevalier de Chauvelin, and the Marquis de Curzay, communicated to them a new Regulation for eſtabliſhing the Tranquility of this Kingdom. The Deputies repreſented, that ſome of the Articles would be liable to Objections, but at the ſame Time engaged to acquaint their Communities with the Regulation, and to do all that lay in their Power to ſupport it.

Peterſburg, Auguſt 1. It appears by the laſt Account of the Ruſſian Troops ſent to Court, that there are actually 200,000 effective Men ready to take the Field, whenever there ſhall be Occaſion for them; of which Troops there are 160,000 Foot, and the reſt Horſe, excluſive of Calmucks, Coſſacks, and Militia.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 14. The Dey of Algiers has wrote a Letter to the King, wherein he gives his Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of his Diſpoſition to continue in Peace with the Kingdom of Denmark, adding, that all the Reports to the contrary can only be propagated by ill diſpoſed Perſons.

From the Gentleman's Magazine, for June 1751.

Mr. URBAN,

THAT remarkable Inſtance of Divine Vengeance mentioned in your Magazine for April, and Mr. Gifford's Letter in your laſt, have induced me to ſend you an Account of the Death of a prophane, common Swearer; which, it is hoped, will deter others from that fooliſh and deteſtable Vice. The Truth of what I am going to relate, is very well atteſted; but as mentioning the Perſon's Name will not anſwer any good Purpoſe, I ſhall for other Reaſons conceal it.

Monday, May 13, 1751, a young Man about five Miles from hence, having poured out ſome new coined Oaths, and terrible Imprecations upon another Occaſion, ſaid, he would be d--mn'd, if he did not cut the firſt Cabbage in C——(the Pariſh where he lived) for which he was reproved by a Perſon that ſtood by, who told him, that it might pleaſe GOD that he might die before it was fit to cut; to whom he replied, for all G-d or the D--l, I'll be d--mn'd, if I don't cut and eat the firſt Cabbage in C——; but the Day after he was taken ſick, and died the Sunday following.

What amazing Agonies muſt ſuch a poor Creature undergo, at the Proſpect of approaching Death, which opened his Eyes and compelled him to have recourſe to Prayer; to implore that Being, whom he had before defied, and to deſire the Aſſiſtance of others to intercede for Mercy, where he had often called for Vengeance.

For ſuch Trifles as the abovementioned, and upon ſuch contingent Events, every common Swearer is too apt to pawn his Soul,

Soul, and to imprecate that Damnation upon himself, which lingereth not. For tho' there may be wise and good Reasons, why GOD should defer the Punishment due to Sin, yet it is agreeable both to infinite Wisdom and Goodness, for the Vindication of Providence, and the Honour of his Name, to make Examples of some Sinners here, that others may be admonished; lest Men should begin to think that there is no GOD, or no GOD that regards what is done upon Earth.

But setting aside the Impiety of common Swearing, the Folly of it, one would think, should be sufficient to prevent a Practice to which there appears to be no Inducement.

Rochester, June 7, 1751. Yours, &c.
T. H.

ST. JOHN's in ANTIGUA, September 13.

On Sunday the 8th Instant, we had the most violent Hurricane that has been known here, in the Memory of the oldest Man living, which began at N. W. between 6 and 7 a Clock in the Evening, and continued to blow, (shifting gradually a Point or two to the Southward of East) with the most shocking Impetuosity, till four a Clock in the Morning. The Damage sustained in Town is very great, but trifling, compared to the Losses they have received in all Parts of the Country.

The Sloop Hannah, Samuel Noldred, Master, belonging to Piscataqua, and bound to this Island, founder'd on Sunday Morning last, 60 Leagues to Windward of the Island, having two of his Men washed over board. He and his People were taken up next Day, by Capt. Ellwell, in the Schooner Phillis, from Cape Anne, who arrived here Yesterday. It is remarkable, that Capt. Noldred had the Storm near 24 Hours sooner than us, for the Height of the Gale, he says, was between 12 a Clock on Saturday Night and two in the Morning.

A List of Vessels put ashore, &c. in the Harbour of ST. JOHN's, the 8th of September, 1751. viz.

Ship Albert, Capt. Everard, of London, got off; Ship John and William, Capt. Chambers, of London, got off; Snow Kingston, Capt. Hubbard, of Maryland, will be got off; Snow ——— Capt. Hyder, of New-York, lost; Brig Friendship, Capt. Barret, of London, got off; Brig Knowles, Capt. Place, of Antigua, lost; Brig Neptune, Capt. German, of Antigua, founder'd; Brig Greyhound, Capt. Houston, of Boston, will get off; Schooner Polly, Capt. M'Alister, of New-York, got off; Schooner Catharine, Capt. Lindsay, of Antigua, lost; Schooner Turner, Capt. Cookson, of Antigua, got off; Sloop Hope, Capt. Lee, of Wilmington, got off; Sloop Charming Molly, Capt. Donavan, of Tortola, will get off; Sloop Speedwell, Capt. Dedman, of Salem, will get off; Sloop Rachel, Capt. Douglas, of Antigua, will get off; Sloop Barbuda Packet, Capt. Harry, of Barbuda, got off; Sloop Prudent Mary, Capt. Hudson, of Antigua, lost; Sloop ——— Capt. Bamister, of Antigua, got off; Sloop Parcel, Capt. Brookes, of Antigua, will get off; Sloop Anne, Capt. Green, of Antigua, will get off; Sloop Elizabeth, Capt. Chapman, of Montserrat, got off; Sloop Elizabeth, Capt. Richardson, of Bermuda, will get off; two Shallops, of Montserrat, will get off.

Also Twenty-two Shallops, and two Mast Boats put ashore, and three Hulks, most of which will be got off.

Capt. Lee, in the Triton, to London, ashore at Parham, but will be got off. The Sloop ———, Jackson, and two Sloops belonging to Major Vickery, ashore, and will also be got off.

The Brig William, Capt. Lewis, from New-London, at Willoughby-Bay, is lost.

A Sloop belonging to St. Eustatia, drove ashore at Green Island, the People supposed to be lost.

A Sloop founder'd off the Old Road, and 7 or 8 dead Bodies drove ashore. A Sloop belonging to Major Hamilton, and a Shallop belonging to Mr. Nanton, lost.

The Glasgow and Shark Men of War, were both ashore at English-Harbour, but are got off.

Capt. Bedford, who arrived Yesterday from Barbadoes, informs us, that he had the Gale of Wind off Martinico, but not with so much Severity as to hinder him to carry Sail; and a Vessel arrived from Boston, which was three Degrees to the Northward of this Island when the Storm happened, had it also moderately.

September 20. A Gentleman from St. Kitts, who left that on Monday Afternoon, informs us, that the violent Hurricane, which we had here on the 8th Instant, was likewise felt there with great Severity. The Town of Basseterre, has received but little Damage, the Wind when at the greatest Height, blowing from the North; but in the Country their Houses, Mills and Works, are in general very much damaged, and at several Estates entirely blown down: their Mountain Plantations (which is quite the Reverse of what has happened in this Island) have suffered the least. About 25 Vessels drove out to Sea when the Gale began, and only two of them returned on Monday last. Five Shallops were drove ashore, and beat to Pieces.

At Nevis they have shared much the same Fate with their Neighbours at St. Kitts, in their Mills, Works, Houses, &c. The Vessels that were in the Road, likewise put to Sea.

And by the Accounts from Montserrat, they must have received much more Damage in Proportion to their Works, than any of the Islands in this Government; there being, as it is said, but two Mills that have escaped, the almost general Devastation, in the whole Island. One Vessel had returned on Saturday last, out of five that put to Sea.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Friday last Thomas Bevin was executed at the Gallows, just without the City Gate, for breaking into the House of Mr. Charles Cole, of this Place, Merchant, on the Night of the 2d of July last, and binding him in his Bed, while his Accomplice waited without to keep watch. He was a likely young Man, who had had a pretty good Education, and was a very ingenious Mechanic, who might have been very useful to himself and the Community, had he but bent his Mind to Honesty; but for some Fault committed in England, he was transported into this Province, where instead of reforming, he committed sundry Crimes, before this last for which he suffer'd. After he was cast for his Life, he applied himself to reading good Books, and was visited in Prison by several Divines to assist him in the work of Preparation. As he rode to the Gallows, he scarce ever once look'd round him, but kept reading all the Way, and when he came there he prayed with seeming Fervour, in Terms well adapted to his Situation, for near half an Hour, when he stood up and spoke to the Spectators, advising them to take Warning by his untimely and shameful End, and to lead quiet and peaceable Lives; and after recommending his Soul to the Divine Mercy, he was turn'd off into that State where we must leave him.
